MISS SPAGNOLA . . .

thanks for being there when we needed you!

If I don't know I don't know
 I think I know
If I don't know I know
 I think I don't know
There is something I don't know that I am supposed to know.
I don't know WHAT it is I don't know,
 and yet I am supposed to know, and I feel I look stupid
 if I seem both not to know it, and not know WHAT it is I don't know.
Therefore I pretend I know it.
 This is nerve-racking
 since I don't know what I must pretend to know.
Therefore I pretend to know everything.
I feel you know what I am supposed to know but you can't tell me what it is.
 because you don't know that I don't know what it is.
You may know what I don't know, but not that I don't know it,
 and I can't tell you.
So you will have to tell me everything.

from KNOTS by R.D. Laing

There is a destiny which makes us brothers;
none goes his way alone.

Edwin Markham

For everything there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to reap;
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down, and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to seek, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love and a time to hate;
A time for war, and a time for peace;
What does the worker gain from his efforts?

Ecclesiastes 3:1-9

Friendship! mysterious cement of the soul.
Sweetner of life, and soldier of society.

Robert Blair

What does a simple nurse do When she's so very new goes back and forth in frenzy to find her place in line, and just 'bout when she's found it, they're breaking for lunch time.
Then she goes for nourishment too, and learns what not to choose!
She looks for organization but everything's a mess . . .
So I guess!
Arise my love, Arise my love, Get to your classes on time, my love
The teacher's late, but woe's your fate if you leave before she arrives!
Your clinical seems far away, but on that very fateful day, you'll have a patient interview.
He'll ask you if you're very new . . .
What else does a simple nurse do
When all's complicated and new?
We're seniors and we'll help you Somehow we'll make it through!
And that's what simple nurses do!!

Would you believe chicken, for a change?!

In the black distance but yet so hear a beam of light

the roar of rolling steel then an eerie screech together with a stagnant, dusty breeze it stops.

Yvonne Esposito

Disease - a curse

Here to stay,

until man has power
to rid this ugliness away.

It haunts the innocent young who know nothing of life, and makes them debilitated — in stress all their lives.

The curse strikes the old causing misery and suffering too — remembering their bodies when they were young and new;
then seeing themselves depreciating, deteriorating each day being dependent on people in so many ways is a hell of a way to spend each day.

Living with disease is living with death — this dark, painful nightmare slowly decays people and leaves them in continual distress until the moment of peace befalls them when they take their last breath.

Yvonne Esposito

The air was familiar today
I'd smelled it once before.
The warmth too was similar
The sun and shade were one I'd known some time ago.
Yet when or where it was I can't exactly say.

I wonder if the day's the same
And just the years have changed.
Something called time elapses
But the smells and sounds
And shapes remain.

Our special moments are not lost.
Perhaps we just must wait
To encounter them again
One unexpected day.

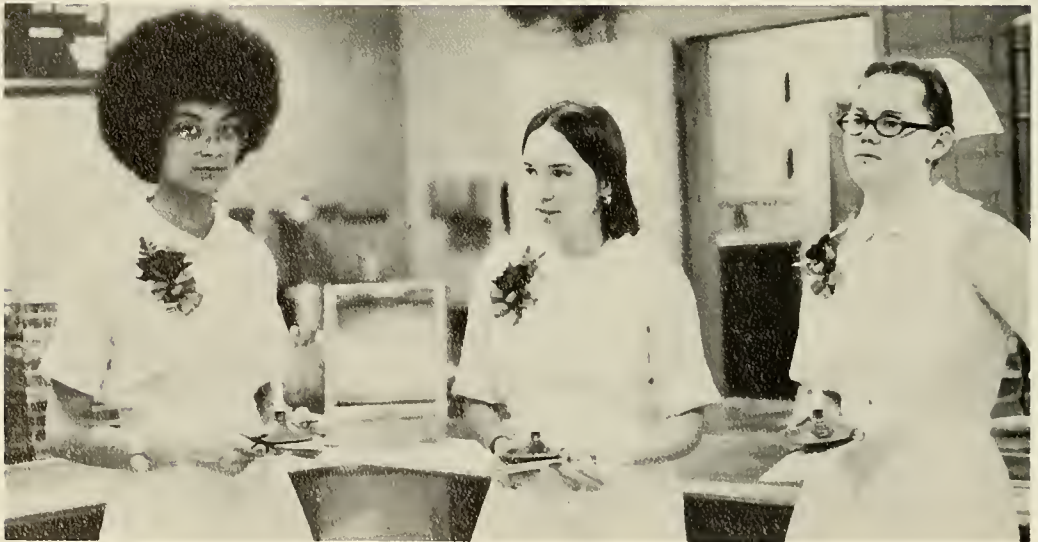

Joy Helmer

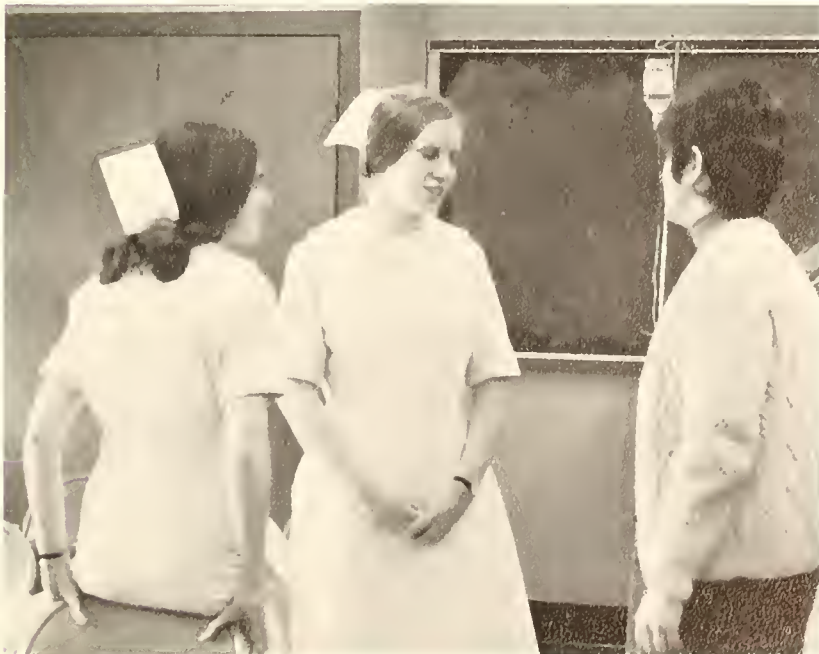

The crowning fortune of a man is to be born with a bias to some pursuit which finds him in employment and happiness.

Emerson

If a man does not make new acquaintances as he advances through life, he will soon find himself left alone; one should keep his friendships in constant repair.

Johnson

The most completely lost of all days is that on which one has not laughed.

Chamfort

Marilyn Staats

The teacher's life should have three periods:
study until 25,
investigation until 40,
profession until 60,
At which age I would have him retire on a double allowance.

We work in the dark
We do what we can
We give what we have.
Our strength is our passion
Our passion is our task.
The rest is the madness of the Art.

THE CORNER GROCERY OF MAXWELL HALL EXTENDS CONGRATULATIONS TO GRADUATES OF CLASS OF 1971. WE THANK ALL STUDENTS FOR THEIR PATRONAGE, EVEN THOSE WHO SWORE THEY WERE GOING ON DIETS!

SO LONG-

but not good-bye

Now that you're graduating, we may not see you anymore at the 1146 St. Nicholas Ave. (168th St.) branch of Chemical Bank. But with our more than 140 offices all around New York and correspondents across the country and the world, we're sure you'll run into us somewhere. So we won't say good-bye. Just "Congratulations. See you soon."

CHEMICAL BANK
We do more for your money.

June, 1971

Dear Graduates,

Our warmest congratulations to each and everyone. You are now a Registered Nurse and ready to take your place in the long honored profession of nursing care.

While your contribution to society is vital, it is our sincere wish that you will experience personal fulfillment and individual growth as you perfect your skills. We are all well aware that the learning process is never over but an on-going commitment throughout our careers in caring for the sick and dying. Not only those who knew you as nursing associates and friends, but all of us on the nursing staff of The Presbyterian Hospital genuinely hope that many of you will continue to share this learning experience with us.

We feel that Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center is not only a renowned teaching institution but also offers a rewarding first work experience. But wherever you choose to embark on your nursing career, we wish you all good things and much happiness.
